

Pika Pika tapas bar y vino

A tiny piece of Spain in Poznań.

Pika Pika is an amazing little tapas bar, situated just off the Old Market Square with a lovely view of the picturesque Town Hall

If you're into spanish wine, beer and food this is just the right place for you. The owner and staff at Pika Pika are all Spanish and thus while enjoying the food and wine at this lovely little joint you also experience the fun & liveliness, that make you feel as if you were in Spain.

If you wish you can test your spanish language skills while ordering a drink, for those who might be a bit shy, an encouraging glass of delicious spanish wine might be recommended.

Pika Pika is a great choice for both a quick lunch and a night out with friends. (*on weekends no last call)
