

Wielkopolska Military Museum

The post-World War II pavilions located in the southern part of Old Market Square house the Wielkopolska Military Museum. Reconstructed from scratch after war-time devastation, the Museum's collection comprises nearly 40,000 items. The exhibits are divided into the three sections of Arms, Uniforms & Military Signs and Historic Documentation.

Dear visitors, from December 1, 2022 to January 31, 2023 Wielkopolska Military Museum will be closed for individual visitors!

The present collection of arms illustrates advances in arms development in Poland from the 11th century to the present times. The oldest uniforms date back to the 18th century and to the era of the Warsaw Duchy (headwear). The only pre-World War II item saved from the devastation of the war is a fragment of the 1901 panorama by Wojciech Kossak depicting The Battle of the Pyramids.
