

Co zmalował Ryszard Kaja - exhibition

The exhibition of one of the most original artist in Poland.

Ryszard Kaja was bound to Poznań since always. Here is where he was born and gained the artistic education. He was a poster-maker, painter and stage-designer in many theatres in Poland, including Grand Theatre in Poznań (Opera).

The exhibition was being prepared by the artist himself. Unfortunately, the early death in 2019 interrupted the work. Nonetheless, the exhibition will take place and will be not only the presentation of Kaja's artworks but also a discovery of the personality of the author - by the souvenirs, projects or notes.

The place of the exposition is The Old Brewery, which is highly popular Art, Trade and Business Center in Poznań. Between Atrium and Passage there is a Courtyard of Art with the Art Gallery. The expo is available every day until the September 30th from 12:00 to 8:00 pm. Tickets cost 10 zł, to buy before the entering the exhibition.
