

St John Market 2020

The oldest of Poznań fairs awaits for you in June! When exactly is that?

St John Market, as the name says, should take place in June. We know what the situation is, though. So maybe a bit later, but it happens and this is the reason to be happy about! It's the only such fair in Poznań, where for over two weeks the Old Market Square fills up with wooden stalls where exhibitors offer so many different products. You can find there local foods, jewellery, ceramics, craft, gastronomic zone and even antiques.

Moreover, as the summer festival should be - it's a lot of music, art, fun and sun.

The fair is set on the Old Market Square what brings more options: everyday at 12:00 you can see famous clock on the Town Hall tower with two mechanical billy goats butting their heads. On Saturday you'll catch the Walkative Tours at 11:45 (be careful - the meeting point is on Plac Wolności by the Old Market Square). Also Saturday is the day when free organ concert are available for free in Poznań Fara Church (12:15). Or maybe you prefer to climb the Royal Castle observation tower and see the fair by the bird's eye? The choice is yours!

This year market starts on July 4th and ends on July 19th, 2020.

Open: 10:00 - 21:00.

Photos: Targowiska www.targowiska.com.pl