A family dinner

A family dinner is not only the joy of being with your loved ones - it can also be an organizational challenge. Parking places, kiddie areas and menus tailored to their needs, the price range - all of these are vital factors in the choice of the restaurant for a perfect family outing. If the meal itself is to be a pleasure, we cannot be frantically running around in the worry that our children are safe and sound. Luckily, there are a few places in Poznań where a dinner with the kids will definitely not end in tears.

There is no need to convince anyone of Śródka and Ostrów Tumski being the perfect place for a nice long walk. Over the course of the last couple of years, there are more and more cafes and restaurants on both sides of Jordan Bridge. One of them is Dynx. The interior design is very much Scandinavian in feeling, and the menu offers European cuisine with Polish touches, in a very impressive edition. What is really worth recommending is their excellent dessert offer. Families will be pleased to hear about the free parking facilities nearby, at Bydgoska 4A.
