4 Museum of Applied Arts and Observation tower – Przemysł Castle

The museum is located in the Przemysł Castle. Here nearly 2 thousand exhibits can be seen - from the Middle Ages till contemporary times. The permanent exhibition is entirely devoted to applied arts - and is the only such collection in Poland. On the top of the castle tower there is an observation terrace, which can be reached by lift, or via stairs. The castle tower is located on the Przemysł Hill and overlooks the entire Old Town. On its top there is an observation terrace, which can be reached by lift, or via stairs. It offers a magnificent panorama of the city.

6 Models of Historic Poznań

The Franciscan Church's vaults host 3 models: the model of historic Poznań, the model of first Piasts' town and the model of the Old Market Square. The first one depicts Poznań as presented in Braun-Hogenberg's picture of 1618 in the scale of 1:150. The second one shows the appearance of Poznań in the 10th century. In consideration of blind people, third model (1:100) has been made in the convex technique. The descriptions of the elements are in Braille.

8 Craftsmen houses

Next to the Town Hall there are colourful houses with characteristic arcades which used to be where craftsmen and tradesmen sold fish, candles and salt. Old craftsmen trade signs from the 16th century can still be found on some of the houses.

Stary Rynek

9 Poznań Croissant Museum

The museum organizes baking demonstrations of St Martin's Croissant together with elements of the Poznań dialect and the history of Poznań under the watchful eye of the Croissant Master. The shows take place in a beautiful Renaissance tenement house with a view of the town hall and goats.

11 Parish Church of St. Stanislaus

One of the most monumental Baroque churches in Poland built by the Jesuits in the 17th century. Inside there is the famous pipe organ - the work of the 19th century organ builder Frederic Ladegast. Underneath the entire temple there is a stretch of cellars where wines were stored in the 20th century.

ul. Klasztorna 11
(entrance on Gółębia Street)

12 Post-Jesuit College

Formerly one of Poland's best secondary schools (18th century), currently the residence of Poznań City Council. In 1806, for three weeks, it hosted Napoleon Bonaparte. It is then that a German chronicler wrote about Poznań being the capital of the world. Fryderyk Chopin played here. In season, the courtyard hosts many concerts, spectacles and meetups.

pl. Kolegiacki 17

13 Citadel Park

The city's largest park area (around 100 hectares). Until the 19th century it was a wine hill, which was then transformed into a fort, which was the main element of the powerful Poznań Fortress. After the war the area was again transformed into park. The Citadel is Poznań's favourite relax and leisure location, with a rich museum offer - Museum of Armaments with the permanent outdoor exhibition of the military equipment and 'Poznań' Army Museum (documentary of the Wielkopolska military). The park area is also home to artist Małgorzata Abakanowicz's open-air instalment 'Unrecognized'.

14 3D Mural – Śródká

The mural was painted in 3D on the wall of a townhouse, and it tells the story of the Śródká district of Poznań. A prince, a bugle call player, a cat or a butcher's stall can all be seen in the painting. It was voted one of Poland's New Seven Wonders in the National Geographic Traveler poll.

ul. Śródká

15 Cathedral

The first Polish cathedral, built in 968. Inside, the tombstones from between the 15th and 16th century, and 19th century Golden Chapel containing the sarcophagi and statues of first Polish rulers Mieszko I and Bolesław Chrobry are noteworthy. In the cellars, relics of the first cathedral, tombs of the first rulers and a Baptistery can be seen.

ul. Ostrów Tumski 17

16 Porta Posnania

The Porta Posnania is a modern center of heritage interpretation and a great introduction to a visit the city. A multimedia and interactive display presents the fascinating history of Cathedral Island - the place connected with the beginnings of the city of Poznań and Polish statehood. Also, the Royal-Imperial Route, presenting the most interesting attractions in Poznań, starts here.
