

Here is a list of some FREE or AFFORDABLE ATTRACTIONS guaranteed to make your stay in Poznań unforgettable.

1 Cathedral Island

Visit Poland's first Cathedral church from the 10th century and see its unique gravestones from the 15th and 16th century. See the Golden Chapel with the sarcophagus and statues of Poland's first rulers, as well as the cathedral vaults. Enter, built in place of a former 10th century princely residence right next to the cathedral. Do not miss the gothic Blessed Virgin Mary Church, the Archdiocesan Museum and the Genius loci Archaeological Reserve. Be sure to visit Porta Posnania – an Interactive Center of the History of the Cathedral Island.

Ostrów Tumski

2 Observation Tower – Przemysł Castle

The castle tower is located in Przemysła Hill and overlooks the entire Old Town. On its top there is an observation terrace, which can be reached by lift, or via stairs. It offers a magnificent panorama of the city.

6 Town Hall

Being on the Old Market Square, you will certainly cannot miss the Renaissance Town Hall, one of the most beautiful monuments of Renaissance architecture in Poland, named by some "the most beautiful north of the Alps". Its interiors today are home to the Museum of the History of Poznań. Be sure to keep in mind Poznań's two most famous tin billy goats from the Town Hall tower, who butt their heads 12 times every day at high noon.

Poznań also offers excellent opportunities for relaxation among lakes and forests, as well as many attractions for the enthusiasts of active leisure. Here are some of the PARKS and GREEN AREAS worth visiting.

18 Citadel

The Citadel is Poznań's largest city park (~100 hectares), and is one of Poznań residents' favourite places of leisure and relaxation, with a rich museum offer (Museum of Armaments, "Poznań" Army Museum). In the park area, there is an instalment of one of Magdalena Abakanowicz's largest outdoor works, "The Unrecognized Ones".

al. Armii Poznań/ul. Szelągowska

19 Old Zoo

The Old Zoo is not very big. The park area teems with lovely trees, bushes and flowers. In the new poikilothermic animals pavilion, there are the world's largest lizards – the monitor lizards, as well as many other reptilians, amphibians (including gigantic frogs – known as the mountain chickens) and many species of fish. At the recently renovated Old Aviary you can see the smallest monkeys in the world – gold and Cotton-top tamarins.

ul. Zwierzyniecka 19

Price: free admission, poikilothermic animals pavilion from 6 PLN

20 Maltańskie Lake

Seeking a place to relax and spend your time actively? There is no need to look any further than Maltańskie Lake. Around this artificial lake, located a mere 2 kilometers from the Old Town, there are walking and cycle paths, a beach resort, mini golf and boule facilities, an all-year skiing slope and the Adrenaline rollercoaster. Right next door, there is the aquapark Malta Thermal Bath, and the route of the narrow gauge train Maltanka, which leads to Poznań Zoo, goes along the lake itself. In the winter season, an indoor ice rink is open at the western bank of the lake.

21 Strzeszyńskie Lake

All year round, the lake and its surrounding forests are an attractive location for active leisure and recreation. Many running paths and cycle routes, a beach volleyball pitch, a beach resort, a sports equipment rental, a motel and restaurant, as well as an art gallery are enough to attract many visitors from the city and beyond.

A water sports equipment rental is located near Ewangelicka Street, next to KontenerArt, and is open daily during the summer season.

22 Warta River Area – Poznań City Beach & More

Relaxing in a beach chair, swinging in a hammock, a tasty snack, perhaps even a beach volleyball match or a round of boules in a specially prepared area? If blissful laziness is your thing, and you also like to do sports, Poznań City Beach is THE place for you to be. There are also many outdoor events here, making this location vibrant and lively all summer long. The Poznań City Beach is available from June 1st till August 31st.
www.facebook.com/Plaza-Miejska-Poznań-The-City-Beach-Poznań

Want to feel the wind in your hair and the river breeze on your face? In the summer, be sure to visit Old Port by Warta. There are three passenger ships at your disposal. Cruises take place on the routes Old Port – Starołęka – Old Port and Old Port – Karolin – Old Port. A standard cruise is ~70 minutes long.
