

Kino Bułgarska 19

The youngest and smallest of Poznań's arts cinemas.

It attracts its audiences by clever, touching and unconventional films, shown in a cozy theater with 50 seats. Its biggest focus are road movies. The screenings are done with the use of the traditional 35 and 16 millimeter strip as well as in digital technology.