

Collegium Minus

The building was built between 1905 and 1910 for the Prussian Royal Academy. Today, it houses Rector's Office of the Adam Mickiewicz University. Inside the building there are two halls - a large hall and a small one, known as the Lubrański Hall. The University Hall is one of the most famous concert halls in Poland. It hosts numerous musical events, including Henryk Wieniawski Violin Competition.