

Fregata Swimming School

Fregata Swimming organizes courses for babies. During these courses babies get used to the water by highly qualified instructors in a family atmosphere.

It is also a great opportunity to check if your toddlers are ready to start learning to swim in a group. What is more, parents can have a free consultation with instructors. During the meeting instructors are going to teach poems and song for children.