

St. Nicholas Church in Skoki

Built in 1737. It has a wooden, half-timbered structure and two towers surmounted by baroque spire-steeples with lanterns. The interior decoration is of a baroque-rococo character. Currently the church is being completely renovated.