

Church of St. Michael the Archangel in Pobiedziska

It was founded at the turn of the 13th and 14th centuries and belongs to the oldest Gothic churches in the Wielkopolska region. Special attention is deserved by the painting of St. Michael the Archangel from 1621 as well as by the sculptures of Our Lady of Sorrows from the second half of the 15th century.

The external walls of the church reveal over a thousand mysterious pits, which probably were created between 14th and 16th century while using the so-called bow drills to strike ritual fire during the rites of Holy Saturday.
