

RESTAURANT WEEK | 28 X - 15 XI

Reservations for the autumn edition of Restaurant Week - the largest and most popular culinary event in Poland - have started at RestaurantWeek.pl. From October 28th to November 15th, Poland's best chefs prepare a showcase three-course experience at the festival price and in the zero-waste formula. In the autumn edition of the event about thirty restaurants in Poznań are participating. In the festival menu, priority will be given to vegetable and fish dishes, zero-waste ingredients will be promoted, while plastic straws and take-away packaging will be banned. Once again, the festival will be accompanied by a nationwide social and environmental campaign, in this edition under the slogan: #EatForEarth #EatForClimate.
