

Flea markets

Flea markets or antique markets can be a real goldmine for treasures and unique antiquities as well as the meeting place for people joined by the same passion and enthusiasm for the old and the unusual. There, you can chat with the salespeople about the history of the item, buy a whole bunch of vintage clothes for almost nothing or purchase valuable antiques and objects “with a soul”.

Pchli Targ - Flea Market

ul. Szwajcarska 14

The Flea Market in the parking area next to M1 Shopping Centre takes place each Saturday, between 6am and 2pm. Admittance is free.

Gięda Antyków - Antique Market

ul. Szwajcarska 14

One of Poland’s largest Antiques Markets, taking place on every second Saturday of the month in the parking area next to M1 Shopping Centre between 6am and 2pm. Admittance is free.