November in Poznań

November in Poznań is not going to be boring. Many interesting events will be a good reason to go out despite the autumn weather. Check out what events are waiting for you in Poznań.

Retro Motor Show

04-06.11.2016

Place: Poznań International Fair

More information: www.retromotor.pl

FB: www.facebook.com/TargiRetroMotorShow

Poznan International Fair has always been a place of exposure of the news from the world of motoring - not only national or "fraternal" countries in the era of socialism, but also the "unreachable" western models. Time to go back in time a little bit and admire the pearls of motoring in all its glory! See how it looked on the MTP over time, and we invite you to see those beautiful mechines live in November!

In Poznań, November 11th - Polish Independence Day - takes on a very special form. One of Poznań's main streets - Święty Marcin Street - celebrates its name day. A colourful parade merrily rolls through the city, with both locals and many tourists enjoying the world famous Saint Martin's Croissants. This exceptional holiday has become Poznań's trademark in comparison to other cities as well as a proof that such occasions can and should be celebrated not only in a formal way.

Vapors of Morphine - koncert

13.11.2016, godz. 19

Place: CK Zamek

More information: www.zamek.poznan.pl

FB: web.facebook.com/events/584276625077860

The ’90s band Morphine pioneered a new type of music — “Low Rock” — featuring the unusual yet seductive lineup of baritone sax, 2-string slide bass and drums. Morphine burned bright and fast but was snuffed out before it’s time when leader Mark Sandman passed away in 1999. From its ashes have risen Vapors of Morphine.
