

Welcome to Poznan

With its 550.000 inhabitants, Poznań is one of Poland's largest cities. Located in the West of the country, it is an important historic, economic, cultural and academic centre. Nearly 130 thousand students make the city teem with life. Poznań has its own airport, it is also a big railway hub. A motorway connects Poznań with Warsaw and Berlin (both in a distance of about 300km or less than 3 hours). Feel invited to discover the city, which combines Eastern energy with Western style.
